The Shenzhen Gifts and Home Fair offers a wide range of suppliers, allowing us to connect directly with factories without travelling far. This makes it a great opportunity for us to meet high-quality suppliers and discover new, unique products.

Yasmine & Amer, Senior Specialist
Procurement, Ooredoo Algeria

During my first visit to the fair in China, I had the opportunity to connect with various Chinese suppliers for gifts and goods, and establish valuable business relationships. The products on display are well known and I've seen significant improvements in quality, all at very competitive prices.

We are a leading national brand of outdoor equipment across all categories. This is our second time exhibiting, and we have been in contact with clients ranging from gift companies to foreign trade companies and overseas buyers. We consider the gift fair an excellent platform for brand display and an important outlet for our products.

Mr. Wang, Sales Director,

This is our first time at the fair and our main aim is to meet gift customers from all over the country at the Gift Fair. The experience has been great with a lot of footfall and all the major gift companies are here. The results have been very positive.
